

CNSF SPEAKER DISCLOSURE FORM

A disclosure statement must be included as the 3rd page of your Course Notes and the 3rd slide of your presentation.

It is recommended that Speakers also verbally disclose potential or apparent conflicts of interest, at the beginning of their sessions.

The Canadian Neurological Sciences Federation (CNSF) strives to minimize bias or conflict of interest within its education events and individual learning activities. As part of this process CNSF requires that all individuals influencing CPD events or being involved in the planning or dissemination of CPD events or learning activities, on behalf of the CNSF, disclose all potential or apparent conflicts of interest. It is the expectation of the CNSF that by being transparent with potential or apparent conflicts of interest participants and auditors will be able to make an informed decision regarding any potential bias in the information being presented.
